FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MERCER COUNTY HOSTS NATIONALLY REKNOWN PISCATAWAY INDIAN NATION PERFORMANCE

--Theatrical Concert Features Authentic Native American Singing and Dancing--

Mercer County, Pa. – Nov. 6 – Mercer County’s Penn State Shenango campus will celebrate Native American History month this November with a Piscataway Indian Nation performance on Nov. 13. The group was formed over 30 years ago and is nationally renowned for their living-history program which is performed in museums, colleges and universities nationwide.

The Piscataway Indian Nation performance features authentic theatrical song, dance and drum acts that focus on educating audiences about the culture, history and present-day issues of Native Americans. The Piscataway Indian Nation has performed all over the world and has also appeared in movies such as “Dances with Wolves.”

The performance will take place at the Penn State Shenango Auditorium, 147 Shenango Avenue in Sharon, Pa. This event is free of charge and begins at 6 p.m. For more information, call 724-983-2836.
