VisitMercerCountyPA Announces 2008 Photo Contest Winners

VisitMercerCountyPA (Executive Director, Peggy Mazyck) is pleased to announce the winners of the agency's 2008 Photo Contest. This is the third year for this contest and the agency was impressed with the quality and diversity of the photos entered. 2008 winners submitted photos that were creative and action packed.

First Place went to Bruce Ellis for his picture "Up, Up and Away" which depicts an action shot of a person water skiing on a shortboard at Lake Latonka. Shirley Seymour won second place for her photo, "Catching That Big One", depicting a scenic shot of a fisherman on Lake Wilhelm". Third place went to Bruce Ellis for "Who's Walking Who" featuring a beautiful shot of an individual walking a dog along the Lake Wilhelm Scenic Byway.

Winning photos may be viewed online at www.VisitMercerCountyPA.com or by visiting the VisitMercerCountyPA Office in downtown Sharon.
